

PGC Board Report

Parkwood Historic District

January 12th, 2015

- The Parkwood Historic District has continued to work to finalize the proposed guidelines for the neighborhood
- A neighborhood meeting is scheduled for 1/29 to review the guidelines with communications for the meeting going out soon.
- The presentation will be recorded and posted to the website and/or Facebook.
- Following the meeting, we'll look to incorporate feedback and seek approval of the guidelines. Regina is working to gather the approval requirements.
- After neighborhood approval, the guidelines will be presented to the Decatur Historic Commission for approval.
- Following approval from the Decatur Historic District we'll look to determine interest from the legacy Decatur Parkwood neighbors in joining the Historic District.
- The guidelines will be reviewed annually and can be updated with approval from the neighborhood and the Decatur Historic District.
